NJI Limited: Most Businesses Don't Want To Do Their Own Books

Like it or not, small businesses can't afford to ignore simple bookkeeping, counsels NJI's Judy Ming, a longtime accounting professional. Getting some small business people to do it can sometimes be like pulling teeth, she says, but for those who learn to take a little time each month to scrutinize their own financial records there are big rewards.

Hear Judy Ming's sage and money-saving advice for yourself at www.overgroundrr.com

True Colors & the Alliance Theater Present August Wilson Full Circle

Kenny Leon and the True Colors Theatre Company have made their mission the preservation and continued popularization of the canon of African American theater. The plays of August Wilson are an indispensable part of this canon.

Beginning September 7 and continuing through September 28 True Colors Theater, in collaboration with the Alliance Theater present the first and last plays of August Wilson's cycle, encompassing the destiny of African America in the twentieth century, Gem of the Ocean, and Radio Golf. The two plays, set in the same city ninety years apart are performed with the same cast -- an event not to be missed!
