A New Issue of The Conductor is Now Available

A new issue of The Conductor is now available at Metro Atlanta businesses, churches, and non-profits. To make sure there are copies in your area, ask neighborhood businesses to stock it.

The 1st Quarter issue is filled with stories that focus on economic issues, politics and it highlights Overground RR!!™ member businesses, churches and non-profits.

Also, look for stories from our contributing authors. They've provided their own take on the topics of business and politics.

Best of all, it will be read by more than 90,000 readers.

What are you waiting for? Get your copy today! You can also read a copy online by visiting our website.

The Church That Unites

Envisioning a church that crosses the numerous social divides, GRACE Community Fellowship Church heals its congregation by connecting them with diverse people of the community.

As the pastor Fredrick Caldwell states, his church sees a broader goal of reaching out.

True Colors Theatre Presents...

Kenny Leon and the True Colors Theatre Company have made their mission the preservation and continued popularization of the canon of African American theater.

Beginning March 4 and continuing through March 21, True Colors Theater presents an eye-opening drama about the Tuskegee Study, a scar on American history where 339 African-Americans were denied treatment for syphilis and deceived by the United States Public Health Service. Chronicled through the experiences of a nurse who attempts to aid four men in the study but is thwarted by self-serving doctors and Washington bureaucracy

Featuring: Jasmine Guy, Eugene Lee & E. Roger Mitchell

Directed by: Kenny Leon

Lena Baker Movie Event In Atlanta

Based on a true story, THE LENA BAKER STORY stars Tichina Arnold (Martin) and recounts the untold story of Lena Baker, the first and only woman to be executed by the electric chair in the state of Georgia in 1945. The film highlights her struggle to rise above the challenges of her life, to face the choices she makes, and to ultimately triumph over her impossible circumstances.
